Vacation Bible School

This June, Zion & Peace will once again, after quite an hiatus, hold a Vacation Bible School! From Sunday, June 16-Thursday, 20, we will have classes at Zion from 5:30-8 pm. Each night, we will be teaching, making crafts, eating snacks and singing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On Thursday, we will have a worship service at Zion at 7 pm, as the kids present what they have learned.

This is open to all kids at both Zion & Peace, as well as any others that would like to attend. Please invite your family or neighbors as we hope to have a large group in our first year back!

For more info, contact the Church office.

Tell It on the Mountain

Luther on...God

I do not doubt that Lucifer's sin was of a similar nature, that he wanted to investigate and know more about the unknown God-the God who has not revealed and disclosed Himself through the Word-than behooved his station. What that God may be, what He may do, what He may want, does not behoove me to know. But it does behoove me to know what God has prescribed, what He has promised, and what He has threatened in the Word. If you meditate diligently on these things, you will find God, yea, He Himself will draw you into His arms. If you fall from that place of security, that is, if you presume to want to know something beyond what is revealed in the Word, you will plunge into the abyss of hell.
